

Unit 407: Learning Outcomes

To gain this qualification, you will be expected to complete and return, within six weeks, your City & Guilds Assessment Workbook. This will include the following Assessment Criteria, which relate to pages from your Suicide First Aid programme workbook.

Learning Outcome The learner will:	Assessment Criteria The learner can:	SFA workbook page ref
1. Understand the causes and prevalence of suicidal behaviour.	1.1 Interpret information on the prevalence of suicidal behaviour.	5
	1.2 Analyse the factors that lead to suicidal behaviour.	6
	1.3 Analyse impact the media and society have on suicidal behaviour	n/a
2. Understand the process of suicide intervention.	2.1 Describe different suicide interventions	10-11
	2.2 Describe the importance of directive and non-directive approaches in suicide interventions	10-11
	2.3 Explain the relationship between the components of suicide intervention.	11
	2.4 Describe the relationship between the suicide intervention tasks and the needs of the individual at risk.	11
	2.5 Evaluate the use of risk assessment tools in suicide interventions.	n/a
3. Understand the role of the main caregiver and other professionals in managing suicide interventions.	3.1 Evaluate the role of a population-based approach to suicide prevention	6,7,9,
	3.2 Analyse the relationship between the main caregiver and professionals in suicide intervention.	10-11
	3.3 Explain the need to conform to legal and organisational policies and procedures when undertaking suicide interventions	9,16
	3.4 Evaluate the importance of knowledge of the local network in delivering suicide interventions.	9